INDICTMENT

COUNT ONE

THE GRAND JURY CHARGES THAT:

On or about March 2, 2005, in Philadelphia, in the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, defendant

JAVIER FERNANDO ROJAS-CASTILLO

knowingly attempted to procure and obtain, contrary to law, and procured and obtained naturalization as a United States citizen for himself, by making in connection with his application for naturalization false statements, sworn under oath, during an interview with an official of the United States Citizenship and Immigration Service and on Form N-400, that he had never been arrested by any law enforcement officer, that he had never been charged with committing any crime or offense, and that he had never been in jail or prison, when in fact, as defendant ROJAS-CASTILLO knew, these statements were false and fictitious.

In violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1425.
